

Peregrine

INDUSTRY: RESIDENTIAL REAL ESTATE

ABOUT

Located within the Southern-most ridge of the picturesque Blue Ridge Mountains lies a community tucked into the unspoiled plateau of Cashiers and Highlands, North Carolina, known as Peregrine. Bordered by rocky bluffs and the prestigious Whiteside Mountain, this private mountain community showcases a series of coming soon, for-sale opportunities for those seeking a luxury mountain lifestyle.

SCOPE OF WORK

---

Our scope of work with Blackrock Development, the primary developer for this project, was to engage in a full brand development exercise to set the stage for a successful sales launch, with assets that spoke to the ideal prospective buyer set.

Brand Development
Brand Application

Once the preferred identity was selected for Peregrine, our team curated a series of application examples to showcase the brand applied real-time.

Brand Application
Large Format Signage + Directionals

Website Design + Development
Mobile Responsive and Optimized UX Interface

A thoughtfully crafted narrative, combined with a deliberate application of brand elements, allowed our team to design a web presence for Peregrine that was both visually engaging and strategically aligned with their target audience's needs and interests.
